PROFILE

London wardrobe stylist and costume designer for commercials, music videos and television. I started in 1998 alongside my mum, a hair and make-up artist, on shows like Capital Radio's Party in the Park, and I've been freelance since 2006.

I dress talent, cast and crowds, from a single hero look to five-film celebrity campaigns, and handle the whole department: fittings, sourcing, buying, continuity, returns and the budget.

Along the way I've worked on the BRIT Awards and the World Music Awards, with the talent below.
